

Support a Child's Education this Pitru Paksha

PRATHAM MYSORE

"Every child in School and Learning Well"

This Pitru Paksha, as we honor our ancestors and reflect on their blessings, let us also extend our compassion to the future generation. In many families, the gift of education remains a distant dream. But together, we can change that!

By supporting the education of a child in need, we not only fulfill our dharma but also create a lasting legacy for the betterment of society. A single contribution towards a child's learning today can transform their tomorrow, leading to a brighter and more empowered future.

Why support now?

Pitru Paksha is a time of selfless giving and remembrance. It is believed that acts of kindness during this period can bring peace and blessings to our ancestors. What better way to honor them than by gifting knowledge, a treasure that lasts a lifetime?
